

Frocks of Fur, Silk, Lace and Velvet, Le Salon de la Mode.

Dinner

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)
New York, Feb. 6.—This is the season of the year when many of the leading dressmakers and tailors advertise that their work will be done for less than in the rush season and when the economically-minded woman who has a little money left after her Christmas shopping, gathers together her spring and summer wardrobe.

There are model gowns that can be bought for much less than the original prices and which, if effective, are quite up to date and excellent investments, for styles do not vary each season so much as might be supposed.

The new fashions are quite in evidence and the colorings and trimmings are decidedly novel. There have lately been an unusual number of spangled gowns, black, white, gray and palest rose pink or tan. The large spangles, like fish scales, are rather newer than the small paillettes, but both are fashionable and it is after all merely a matter of personal fancy that decides the question. A most effective and charming gown of white tulle is elaborately spangled with violet colored scales arranged to form a broad band around the front of the skirt and also around the shoulders (the waist being cut low). Over the rest of the gown are more of the flat violet scales with smaller and more brilliant paillettes, thus doing away with any dull appearance the less bright scales might give. Silver and gold spangles on black or white net and jet paillettes on the black or white also are as popular as ever, but it is not thought so smart to have the net so covered with spangles as last year, the more flowing and open designs being much smarter.

Florida in the hope that Dr. La Motte's health may be benefited. They will not be in Salt Lake for several months.

Miss Carrie Vincent is in Denver, a guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter Jones. She will not return for some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Kerrick left yesterday for a visit in California. Mrs. Kerrick will probably not return until summer.

Mrs. John Pike is home from Provo, where she visited friends for a few weeks.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer of Ogden was a Salt Lake visitor last week.

Mrs. Lafayette Holbrook of Provo is spending several weeks in Salt Lake with friends.

Mrs. E. I. Correll and daughter, Mrs. R. W. Brady, have gone to Los Angeles for a three months' visit.

Clarence Gaines has returned from a month's vacation on the coast.

Mrs. Rosemary Glosz-Whitney, who has been ill at the Holy Cross hospital for some time, is entirely recovered and is now at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Glosz, on North State street. Mrs. Whitney expects to leave shortly for New York, however, to follow her profession as an operatic singer.

L. L. Downing spent the first part of last week in Idaho.

Miss Blossom Mitchell has gone to California for a visit of several weeks.

Mrs. J. T. Donahue will spend the next few weeks with friends on the Pacific coast.

Miss Laura Crawford is visiting friends in Colorado Springs and will not return until spring.

Mrs. M. E. Baer of East Waterloo was so far recovered from her recent illness as to be taken from the hospital to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cutler and children left during the week for California.

Mrs. W. C. Thomas has gone to Boise, where she will pass the next month visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. S. Dow returned Monday from their wedding trip spent in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wertheimer were Salt Lake visitors during the week. Mrs. Wertheimer has just returned from a visit with her children, who are studying in San Francisco. She was met here by Mr. Wertheimer and both have gone to their home in De La Mar.

Mrs. Albert Herz has gone to Chicago for a four months' visit with her father and other relatives.

Miss Minnie Kiesel will be among the out-of-town guests at the third Assembly and the University club reception.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry La Motte will leave Philadelphia shortly and go to their annual ball Thursday evening. It was largely attended and was a very delightful affair. The Episcopal ladies proved themselves the most charming hostesses.

The Billie club of Salt Lake has made arrangements for an excursion to Ogden next Friday evening. A ball at Dignan's will be one of the features of the evening.

Carl Christensen, Jr., has gone to the coast for a month's vacation.

B. E. Livingston has returned from a month's visit with friends at Henater.

Mrs. A. Topence has gone to California on a visit. She expects to be gone about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cheevers and son have returned from California, where they have been for the past month. Mr. Cheevers' health is much improved.

The Second Ward Primary association will give a Valentine party in the Second Ward amusement hall next Friday night.

The ladies of the Fifth ward gave a very delightful leap year party in the amusement hall of the Fifth ward Monday night.

The Utah girls at the National Park seminary at Washington, D. C., were the guests of Cadets Gerald Child and William C. Barker of Ogden, and Robert Leo Irvine of Logan at the graduation dance of the United States Naval academy at Annapolis.

Dr. and Mrs. Lorin F. Rich left Tuesday for Rexburg, where they will make their home. Dr. and Mrs. Rich returned about two weeks ago from a wedding trip to Atlanta, Ga., and have been in Ogden visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rhine have returned from a pleasant visit with friends at Rawlins, Wyo.

Mrs. Abe Kuhn has returned from an extended visit with her daughters, Mrs. Marx of St. Louis, and Mrs. Wertheimer of Pine Bluff, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Linsley of Evanston, Wyo., and Miss Minnie Christensen of Omaha, are visiting in Ogden, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Linsley.

The new officers of the Rathbone sisters gave a card party and banquet to the members of the lodge Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. N. Custard. There were twenty-four ladies present and a most enjoyable time was had by all. The contest was won by Mrs. Staples, the best player being Mrs. James Callahan and the booby prize by Mrs. Thomas Jackson. After the card party a delicious repast was partaken of in the dining-room.

Thirteen of the young ladies of the Second ward are to give a "spinster's convention" on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Will Powell, an employee of the Southern Pacific railroad, left this week for Nebraska, where he will spend a month with friends and relatives at his old home.

The Modern Woodmen of America gave their annual ball at Dignan's dancing academy Tuesday evening. A large crowd was in attendance and the evening was one of unalloyed pleasure. Punch and wafers were served in the hall adjoining and Dignan's full orchestra furnished exquisite music for dancing. At 10:30 the dance was turned into a leap year party, and the ladies took their parts admirably. The committee of arrangements were M. A. Gould, E. G. Burdick and Walter Williams. The reception committee consisted of J. J. Brummitt, J. W. Wilcox, H. L. White, Charles Stout and Hyram Lewis. The floor committee consisted of the Foresters' drill team, composed of Chief Forester William Fowler and Foresters Joe Grange, Frank Weesler, Frank Helene, Clarence Ward, Isadore Hase, William Newman, Carl Shurtliff, William Porter, William Hunt and James Hight.

An informal reception to the students of the Weber state academy was given by the faculty Tuesday evening. A very interesting programme was rendered. Principal David O. McKay made an address of welcome, which was responded to by William Manning of the high school and members of the academy board. Prof. Elderly rendered two violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. Sylvester Bradford. Ice cream and cake were then served, and the students indulged in social communion for an hour, after which an address of welcome to the incoming class of the eighth grade was made by Clyde Lindsey, and was responded to by William Wright. The event was very much enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. C. J. Stone left Friday for Oklahoma to spend two months on the ranch of her father, Judge L. J. Le Conte of Toronto, Canada. She will be met there by Judge Le Conte, her brother, Attorney Le Conte of Hamilton, Canada, and her two sisters, who reside in Paris, France. On her return Mrs. Stone will be met at Chicago by her husband.

The Order of Washington gives a social Tuesday evening in A. O. U. W. hall. The event celebrates the change of lodge headquarters from their present place to the A. O. U. W. hall.

Mrs. F. J. Kiesel was the charming hostess at a very pretty informal luncheon Wednesday afternoon.

Last Tuesday evening the Y. L. M. I. gave a very social affair, after a short session to the home of Mrs. Harriet E. Woodmansee, completely surprising the former president of that association. In consideration of their long and efficient services, and as a testimonial of the great esteem in which they are held,

President Woodmansee and her counsel, Mary E. Vance, were each presented with a handsome piece of cut glass. The evening was pleasantly spent in addresses and expressions of good will, singing and instrumental music. Dainty refreshments were served by the new officers of the association. President Woodmansee was recently called to the state presidency, thus necessitating her resignation as the president of the local organization.

The Ooterie.

The meeting of the Ooterie with Mrs. J. W. Abbott on Tuesday last was an afternoon of rare enjoyment. All members were present, and a goodly number of guests graced the occasion with their presence, among whom were Meddams, Banister, Conlisk, Dalrymple, Pierce, Magnolia, A. C. Emerson, the Misses Kassin and Walker, and Mrs. Reed of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Perkins favored the club with her recollections of "A Day in Concord," and with vivid pen-pictures took us back to the places of interest in that famous old town, dear to the heart of every American as having been the home and now the last resting place of Hawthorne, Alcott, Emerson and Thoreau.

An exceedingly interesting and carefully prepared paper was also given by Mrs. Kassin, taking us back to the quaint old "Churches and Churchyards" of the Puritan and Cavaliers of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth centuries.

Adding much to the pleasure of the afternoon were the delightful readings given by the gifted Mrs. Reed of Salt Lake City, and the music on piano and violin furnished by the promising young musicians, Master George Abbott and his sister Mary.

After refreshments to which all did ample justice, the Ooterie adjourned to meet again in two weeks with Mrs. L. B. Adams.

The largest and most delightful event of the week was the party given by Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilson at their pleasant home, Tuesday evening. The event was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Beattie, who leaves for school shortly. Different games were played at the several tables, prizes being won by Mrs. Charles Shields, Mrs. Arthur Williams, L. F. Hubbard and Arthur Davis. A dainty luncheon was served, the host and hostess being assisted by their daughter and niece. Musical selections were rendered by Miss Genevieve Wilson and Mrs. F. Galt. The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McCarty, Mrs. and Mrs. E. A. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Wright, Mr. and
